JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 21, 1906.

SAN FRANCISCO FIRE NOW UNDER CONTROL

ONE-FOURTH OF CITY WILL PROBABLY BE SAVED FROM FLAMES

High Wind Now Blowing Over the Scene and Principal Avenue of Escape From City to Ferry Buildings May be Shut Off by Falling Walls--Various Reports From Desolated District.

San Francisco, April 20.—The fire is now positively stated to be under control, with a probability that one-quarter of the city, lying west of Franklin street and known as the western addition, northward to the Presidio, will be saved. The stand made at Van Ness avenue was generally successful, flames crossing that avenue to the west in but few places.

Fourteen men were killed last night by the soldiers guarding the mint, and Police-man Joseph M. Myers was bayoneted and killed by national guardsmen over a dispute as to authority. The men at the mint were killed for attempting robbery.

WIND BLOWING HARD.
A high wind is blowing to night from the northwest over the fire stricken districts and the water front, threatening to cut off communication with Oakland and Berkeley. General Carter has ordered out a squadron of men to endeavor to check the flames, which threaten the union ferry depot, the only means of express from the city, from being destroyed. The water front emergency hospital is endangered. The wind is of such velocity that brick and granite walls, weakened by the earthquake and subsequent fire, are falling into the streets. Market street, the principal avenue of escape from the city to the ferry buildings, may be blocked, thus shutting off practically the only means of escape.

FIRE ON WATER FRONT.
At 7 o'clock to night fire was raging over fifty acres of the water front between Bay street and the edge of Moities and fisherman's wharfs. Eastward it extended down to the sea wall, but had not reached the pier. The cannery and warehouses of the Central California Canneries company, together with 20,000 cases of canned fruit, were totally destroyed, as also were the Simpson and other lumber companies' yards.

At 11:30 p. m. the fire in the neighborhood of the ferry building is believed to be checked.

TAKEN OUT ALIVE.
San Francisco, April 20.—Eleven postal clerks were taken from the debris of the postoffice to day. All were thought to be dead, but it was found that although they were buried under the wrecked stone walls, every one was alive. They had been three days without food or water. All the mail was saved.

WAR DEPARTMENT ADVISES.
Washington, April 20.—The war department at 9 o'clock to night received the following from San Francisco:

"There has been no renewal of the fire west of Octavia street or south of Market street, but it is not under control at the water front and is creeping toward the ferry house, from which this information is sent."

"However, not much alarm is felt that it will reach the ferry building, even if it reaches the steamer freight sheds on the north."

ASKS FOR MARINES.
Oakland, Cal., April 20.—Governor Pardee to day wired President Roosevelt asking him to send the Pacific squadron to San Francisco with all possible speed in order that the marines may help sufferers and also that supplies of the squadron may be used for relief of the needy.

AT SANTA ROSA.
Sacramento, Cal., April 20.—State Controller Cogan, who is at Santa Rosa, telephones that reports from that place are greatly exaggerated. Public and business buildings were wrecked, but the residence portion was only slightly damaged. Forty people were killed in the business part of the town, but no one was injured in the residence section.

BUILDING PLANS.
New York, April 20.—It was announced at the office of Guggenheim Sons to day that orders have been issued by that firm to proceed as soon as practicable with the construction of a $5,000,000 smelting plant in San Francisco.

BY WAY OF GERMANY.
Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—Edward Newman of San Francisco desired to communicate with the Black brothers at Los Angeles. Failing to get a wire he cabled Isidor Holdheim, a cousin in Berlin, Germany, saying that the Newman family was well and alive, and this anxiously awaited good news was called back from Germany to the Black brothers, who received the information to day.

TO CONTRIBUTORS.
Sacramento, April 20.—Lieut. Gov. Alden Anderson, who is assisting with the work in the governor's office at Sacramento, gave the following signed statement to the Associated Press this afternoon as an answer to numerous inquiries received from various places, asking what to contribute and to whom to send it. It was prepared after conferring over the telephone with the governor in Oakland:

"Three-fourths of San Francisco, including factories and all wholesale districts, has been burned. Thousands of people are homeless and destitute and must have food and other supplies for some time. Nearly places should send prepared food, such as bread, crackers, tinned goods, cured meats, etc.

"Those making such contributions should send currency or coin so it can become immediately available. Send supplies or money to the General Relief Committee, care Mayor E. E. Schmitz, San Francisco, Calif.

ABANDONED OFFICE.
San Francisco, April 20.—The Postal Telegraph company has abandoned its temporary office in the ferry building. The wind, which is blowing a gale, has shifted to the northwest and the flames are now threatening the ferry building with destruction.

GIFT APPRECIATED
Federal Government Thanked for Generous Contributions

San Francisco, April 20.—Mayor Schmitz to day sent the following to President Roosevelt:

"The generous contribution of $1,000,000 from the federal government for relief of the destitute citizens received and deeply appreciated. The people are overwhelmed by your generosity. All of this money will be used for relief purposes. Property owners are determined to rebuild as soon as the fire ceases. The city will immediately proceed to provide capital for the purpose of reconstructing public buildings, schools, jails, hospitals, sewers and salt and fresh water systems. The people hope the federal government will at once provide ample appropriations to rebuild all federal buildings on a scale befitting the new San Francisco. We are determined to restore to the nation its chief port on the Pacific."

FOOD PROBLEM.
San Francisco, April 20.—The problem now confronting the authorities is how to feed the multitude of destitute people. Supplies are coming in by the train load, but as yet the system of distribution is not in complete working order. At the Presidio, where probably 50,000 people are camped, affairs are conducted with military precision. Water is plentiful and rations were dealt out all day long. The people are brave and patient and the wonderful order preserved by them has been of great assistance. In Golden Gate park, where are camped 200,000 people, a huge supply station has been established and provisions are being dealt out. Probably 100,000 more people are camped in vacant lots and squares scattered about the city and these are the unfortunate that are hard to reach.

APPEAL TO CHURCHES.
Chicago, April 20.—Bishop McDowell of the Methodist Episcopal church, to day issued an appeal that collections for the San Francisco sufferers be taken up next Sunday in churches of that denomination in Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Indiana and Minnesota. The money will be sent to Jennings & Graham, 57 Washington street, Chicago.

The Order of Eagles to day levied a tax upon all members in the United States and Canada that will bring $20,000 to the California relief fund.

Stockton, Cal., April 20.—For the relief of ten thousand or more refugees who are expected to arrive in Stockton from San Francisco by Sunday, the Chicago board of trade to day sent $25,000 to be used here.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—Thirty-four car loads of provisions for San Francisco sufferers left Los Angeles to day.

TELL EXPERIENCES

Arrivals at Los Angeles Talks of Earthquake Horror

Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—Several men prominent in local business life, who passed through the earthquake horror at San Jose, reached home to day. Among them was State Senator Cornelius Pendleton. He told of the escape of himself and others from the ruins of the Vendome hotel after that building had collapsed. He said they then made the rounds of the city and saw at least twenty dead. At St. Agnes's hospital they counted sixty dead, but there were many more. Practically every brick and stone structure in San Jose, he says, was totally or partially demolished.

Sheriff White tells much the same story as Senator Pendleton concerning the destruction at San Jose. At St. Agnes's hospital, he says, he saw sixty bodies taken from the ruins and believed there were 100 more under the wrecked building. White says:

"There is not a brick or stone building two stories or over in San Jose to day that has not been leveled to the ground, or that will not have to be torn down. There were some fires after the earthquake, but the fire department soon had them under control."

LOSS OF LIFE EXAGGERATED.
Washington, April 20.—Rear Admiral McCalla has wired the navy department as follows from Mare Island:

"Visited San Francisco during the night. South of Market street the city is destroyed from the water front to north postoffice and to the hills south and north of Market street from the water front to Powell and Broadway. Fire still burning fiercely. Loss of life is exaggerated. Have sent all the marines available."

TRAIN LEAVES WASHINGTON.
Washington, April 20.—A special train of twelve express cars chartered by the government to speed supplies to the stricken city of San Francisco left Washington early this morning, taking aboard such supplies as had been collected here.

General Bell, chief of staff, has arranged for unobstructed right of way for this train across the continent and it will undoubtedly establish a record. It is loaded with tents, stoves and commissary supplies. At Chicago the special will take the Northwestern railroad and then the Union Pacific railway on to the coast.

CRUISERS AT SAN FRANCISCO.
Commissary officers to night estimate that $1,500,000 has already been expended or contracted for in relief work so far, and that at least another half million will be necessary to continue the work.

The cruiser Marblehead arrived at San Francisco to day, where it joined the cruiser Chicago which preceded it by a few hours. A dispatch to the navy department announced that the two ships immediately landed a battalion of sailors to report to General Funston, and marines who reported to Colonel Karmay.

Secretary Taft to day accepted an offer of a car load of beef and provisions from J. C. Doid, Wichita, Kan., packers, to be used by the Red Cross.

FOUGHT A DRAW.
Milwaukee, Wis., April 20.—"Honey" Mel-boly of Boston and Jack Dougherty of Milwaukee fought eight fast rounds to a draw to night.

AT SAN JOSE

Nineteen People Killed and Property Damage $5,000,000

San Jose, Cal., April 20.—Nineteen people were killed in San Jose and the entire business section was wrecked, and it is estimated the damage is $5,000,000. One hundred and ten killed and seventy injured, mostly patients at St. Agnes's asylum, and the building completely ruined. Stanford university, Memorial church and other buildings are down; damage $3,000,000. One student named Hanna and one other man was killed there. The damage to the Pacific Milling company at Santa Clara is $150,000 and the total loss there is $500,000; no loss of life. At Gilroy about the same amount of damage, no death.

At Salinas, Spreckles' sugar refinery, valued at $1,000,000, was completely destroyed. Reports from Delmonte, Hollister, Watsonville, Monterey, Pacific Grove, Santa Cruz and other southern coast points show slight damage in comparison. At Hollister a man was killed and $100,000 damage was done. The narrow gauge tunnel at Wrights, three-quarters of a mile long, caved in.

Hundreds of people are streaming into Santa Clara county from San Francisco. Company B, Fifth national guard, is in charge of the city. The strictest martial law prevails. Vigilance committee have been organized and placards warning any person found committing any act of lawlessness will be summarily hanged.

The Mercantile academy, a Catholic institution at Watsonville, was badly damaged, but no lives were lost. Among those killed in San Jose are Mr. and Mrs. Bert Halley, Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Corgan, Oakland; Thomas O'Toole, Gilroy; Mrs. Charles Costa, Mrs. Clara Everett, Mrs. Wardell and Florence Farrar.

Among the buildings wrecked here are: First Presbyterian, St. Patrick's, Central Methodist Episcopal, Central Christian and South Methodist churches.

Every building on the west side of First street, from St. James park to San Fernando street, are either down or toppling, badly cracked, and every one will have to be rebuilt.

The Anzerias building, the Elks' club, the Unique theatre and many other buildings on Santa Clara street are down.

On Second street, the six story Dougherty building and several adjoining blocks were destroyed by fire. The new high school building in Normal Park is a complete wreck.

YALE SCIENTISTS

Think Whole California Region Liable to Earthquakes Any Time.

New Haven, Conn., April 20.—Yale scientists agree that the whole California region is liable to be attacked by earthquakes at any time. Prof. Louis V. Pierce, head of the department of physical geography, said:

"They seem to have earthquakes in California more or less every year, but none of them, of course, has reached such a degree of severity as this one. The whole configuration of the California coast shows that there will continue to be earthquakes in that region. It would be the part of prudence to put up buildings with that condition in view. That has been done to some extent, and it will be most interesting and instructive to note how well the buildings erected with a view to combating shocks of earthquakes have survived the catastrophe.

"It is to be noted that there have been earthquakes connected with the recent eruptions of Vesuvius. The disturbances there have been of almost a local nature."

Prof. Arthur W. Wright of Yale, head of the department of physics for years, said:

"The whole Sierra Nevada region in the west is of volcanic origin and earthquakes are frequent. There have been recent shocks in Japan, Formosa and other places, and there may have been a connection between them caused by the surface of the earth adapting itself to new conditions."

SLIPPING INTO SEA

Senatorial Rumor Concerning Honolulu.

San Francisco, April 20.—The oriental liner China arrived in port to night. A report, which cannot be confirmed, is to the effect that the wireless telegraph system at Diamond Head, Honolulu, was in brief communication with the China this afternoon and reported that Honolulu was slipping into the sea. Little credence is placed in the above report, which may be one of the many rumors that have spread since Wednesday.

THE D. A. R.
Washington, April 20.—At to day's session of the daughters of the American Revolution the election of vice presidents general was announced. Among them Mrs. L. H. Newberry, Meligan and Mrs. Drayton W. Bushnell, Iowa.

PAID BACK TAXES.
Lansing, Mich., April 20.—The Grand Trunk railroad paid the state to day back taxes and penalties of $77,731. This is in accordance with the recent decision of the United States supreme court.

GENEROSITY OF THE PEOPLE

RELIEF WORK GOING ON EVERYWHERE

Funds Being Raised for Earthquake sufferers in California—Action Taken by Various Cities and Organizations.

Los Angeles.—The Chinese population of Los Angeles to day subscribed $5,000 in cash for the relief of the San Francisco victims and also forwarded a car load of rice, vegetables and meat.

Des Moines, Iowa.—Contributions to the amount of $238 for the destitute in San Francisco were received in this city to day. It is the expectation to raise $10,000 here.

Bloomington, Ill.—The city council to night voted $500 for San Francisco sufferers.

Hurlington, Iowa.—At a mass meeting of citizens to night it was decided to raise several thousand dollars for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers.

Chicago.—This city untied her purse strings to day and when organizations engaged in the relief movement had ceased their labors to night the fund had been swelled to nearly half a million dollars. This will probably be tripled during the next forty-eight hours.

London.—The American colony started a relief fund to day with approximately $12,500. This will be greatly increased.

New York.—Present indications are the relief fund raised here will reach the amount of $3,000,000.

Jeffersonville, Ind.—The Jeffersonville army supply depot, on orders from the war department, to day sent thirty-five car loads of supplies to San Francisco.

Davenport, Iowa.—The earthquake relief fund to day reached $20,000, of which $1,500 was telegraphed to Mayor Schmitz to day. The Davenport clearing house gave $5,000 this afternoon.

Chicago.—Reports from Union Pacific and Central Pacific offices here state an enormous amount of supplies is on the way to San Francisco. One packing house started eight car loads of meat to day, on order of the Boston committee. Minneapolis is sending four and, in fact, every part of the country is moving for the relief of the stricken city.

Boston.—This afternoon Mayor Fitzgerald arranged with the Chicago packing house to forward $25,000 worth of food products immediately to San Francisco.

New York.—A cablegram announces the North German Lloyd Steamship company to day started a subscription in Bremen for San Francisco sufferers by subscribing $25,000.

Rockford, Ill.—Nearly five hundred dollars was telegraphed to San Francisco to day by Rockford fraternal lodges. The citizens' committee raised $2,000 to day and this will be expended for provisions through the Red Cross society.

Madison, Wis.—To night $1,000 was wired to the coast.

Waterloo, Iowa.—Waterloo to day raised $2,500 for San Francisco sufferers.

FOR SPEEDY RELIEF

Every Effort Made by Government to Assist Sufferers.

Washington, April 20.—Every branch of the government service from the president down is bending every effort to bring to the earthquake sufferers speedy relief.

The cabinet to day considered the San Francisco situation and it was decided that Secretary McCalla should proceed to that city as representative of the national government and to consult with the authorities as to what is needed to alleviate distress.

It is realized here by one and all that independently of outside aid the federal authorities have a duty to perform which, to make it count, must be performed with all possible dispatch. Every available vessel in the vicinity of San Francisco, whether it belongs to the navy, army, revenue cutter service, fish commission or light house service, has been directed to carry supplies of every description to the stricken city and render other assistance, while officers of the army on the Pacific coast and elsewhere have been given imperative instructions to ship tents, rations, medical and other relief supplies.

Offers of assistance from abroad have been very gratifying to the president, but he feels that the United States is able to care for the San Francisco sufferers and contributions from foreign countries will be declined.

FIRE IN PHILIPPINES.
Manila, April 21, 7:50 a. m.—Fire swept the town of Marikina, in Rizal province. Many thousands of persons are homeless and starving. Two thousand dwellings are in ruins. The government is rushing assistance to sufferers.

Fire also destroyed Pasig, near the town of Cebu. Two hundred dwellings burned and many persons are homeless.

SCHAEFFER WON GAME.
New York, April 20.—Jacob Schaeffer of Chicago defeated Willie Hoppe to night by a score of 202 to 188.

TROUBLE IN HOUSE

Diplomacy Avoids Serious Altercation Between Two Members

Washington, April 20.—Although the congressional record does not show any difference of opinion between Grosvonts of Ohio and Clark of Florida, the fact is a serious altercation between these two was avoided in the house to day by the diplomacy of the minority leader, William of Mississippi, who asked unanimous consent that the language of the gentlemen be stricken from the record. There was a threat of personal violence on the part of Clark against the Ohio congressman, growing out of a statement by the latter that Clark had "purposely misrepresented him." Excitement ran high for a short time over the unparliamentary language used by the two members growing out of a desire on the part of Clark to have a congressional investigation of the St. Elizabeth insane asylum. The speaker loudly called the gentlemen to order and William restored outward peace by having the objectionable words eliminated from the record. After considering sixty-five pages of the District of Columbia appropriation bill it was laid aside to be introduced to morrow.

SENATE.
Senator La Follette to day continued, but did not conclude his speech in the senate on railroad rate legislation. The appropriation for San Francisco sufferers was made available for the purpose of medical supplies and the first step toward replacing public buildings in that city was taken by adoption of a resolution asking the secretary of the treasury to prepare an estimate of the cost of new structures.

HEAR FROM GOVERNOR.
The California congressional delegation is in receipt of the following from Governor Pardee:

"Oakland, Cal., April 20. Thanks of the people of California for the nation's generosity. Give my personal thanks to each member of the delegation and tell them that Mrs. Kahn is safe and well."

Senator Perkins received the following from Governor Pardee:

"All of California applauds the nation's generosity. Three hundred thousand are homeless."

TRADE REVIEW

News of Pleasant Nature Part Week Aside From San Francisco Disaster.

New York, April 20.—Broadstreet's Review says: Aside from the disaster at San Francisco, practically every trade and news feature of the week is of a pleasant nature. The crops, trade and industry, excepting only the coal situation, improve with the weather and natural spring tendency to expansion. Retail trade shows considerable stimulus. Iron and steel conditions are even more favorable. Railway earnings are heavy. Collections tend to improve and money is certainly easier, though still in active demand. Lines noting the chief activity this week were seasonable dry goods, clothing and shoes, worn dress goods and men's wear in fabrics were strong, and the strength is reflected in the raw wool market.

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week were 1,545,000 bushels against 1,312,000 last year; from July 1 to date, 105,352,000 bushels, against 51,063,000 last year.

Corn exports for this week were 1,474,000 bushels, against 2,233,000 a year ago; from July 1 to date, 101,573,000 bushels, against 65,378,000 in 1905.

DUN'S REPORT.
R. G. Dun & Co.: The devastation on the Pacific coast and the widened breach between anthracite coal miners and operators were adverse trade factors of grave local significance, but the nation as a whole is responsive to favorable influences of good weather for spring business, agricultural undertakings and building operations. A special canvass of the winter wheat situation shows little injury and a large acreage, and structural work is not checked by the high prices of building materials. Manufacturing plants are fully occupied, except some dependent upon hard coal, and the chief complaint in most industries pertains to the supply of labor. Foreign commerce at this port last week shows gains of $1,963,681 in exports and $895,155 in imports, compared with 1905.

The number of failures this week was 120 in the United States, against 200 last year.

FISH WARDEN A CHUMP.
Pekin, Ill., April 20.—Deputy Fish Warden Charles Snooks was rowing in a boat along the river yesterday evening. Seeing two ladies sitting on the piling near the elevator, he thought to scare them by firing a shotgun. He was about twenty feet away when he discharged a load of shot into the water. One of the shot rebounded on the water and struck Mrs. Charles Lemasters in the socket of the left eye, imbedding itself in the bone to such an extent that the surgeon could not extract it without considerable pain to the victim, and it will be allowed to remain there, as it can do no harm.

STATE MAY RENDER AID

FOR RELIEF OF SAN FRANCISCO SUFFERERS

If Found Legal Legislature Will Appropriate $100,000—Question in Hands of Attorney General—Governor's Proclamation

Springfield, April 20. (Special.)—The Illinois legislature, if it is found legal to do so at the present session, will appropriate $100,000 or perhaps more, for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers. The question is in the hands of Attorney General Stead to decide. It is not deemed policy to call a special session of the legislature if this cannot be accomplished in the special session now being held, as it would necessitate the adjournment of the special session, at which, according to the constitution, it would take at least five days to get the appropriation through, and then that session would adjourn, and the governor would be again compelled to convene the general assembly in another extraordinary session to pass the primary election law. Governor Deeney thinks that the matter can be attended to at the present session and the money paid out of the contingency fund.

The house committee of five was appointed to consult with the governor on the means for appropriating money for the aid of the stricken people of San Francisco. The chair appointed on the committee Messrs. Glendon and S. E. Erickson of Cook county, Wilson of DuPage, Burgess of Douglas and Lorton of Morgan.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.
Late this afternoon Governor Deeney issued the following proclamation:

"To the People of Illinois:
"The destruction of life and property caused by the earthquake at San Francisco and other cities of California are of a magnitude unparalleled in our history. The loss and suffering in the desolated territory are so widespread that the stricken localities are powerless to help the survivors. Outside assistance is imperatively and instantly demanded. What is to be done for the relief of those made destitute by this calamity, if it is to be of the best service, must be done at once. Delay in the transmission of help will not merely prolong the distress but add to the already long list of fatalities."

"In this distressful situation, as governor of the state, I appeal to the charitable people of Illinois to contribute liberally through all available channels to funds for the benefit of the earthquake victims, and suggest that the transmission of such funds be entrusted to the American National Red Cross society, as suggested by President Roosevelt. For distribution by this society, the sums collected can be forwarded to Mr. Orson Smith, treasurer of the Illinois branch of the American National Red Cross society, president of the Merchants' Loan and Trust company, 135 Adams street, Chicago, Ill.

"Illinois has had experience of the generosity with which her own appeal on behalf of stricken Chicago was answered by the world, and I most earnestly urge upon the people of our state, in this day of their own safety and prosperity, to respond generously to the need of those upon whom has fallen this heavy misfortune."

"CHARLES S. DENEGEN, Governor."

By the Governor:
JAMES A. ROSE,
Secretary of State.

Children have tender stomachs

Most Physics are Dangerous

A child's stomach is very tender and cannot digest food as well as an adult's, and neither can it stand the explosive purgatives which adults are often persuaded to take for constipation and other stomach disorders. Many parents give their children such physics as salts, or the ordinary pills and tablets, that are pleasant to take because of their taste. A child that is dosed with such physics soon forms a habit which if continued means a permanent loss of health. A physic will be constantly required to move the bowels. Children do not object to taking as much as they do even the most palatable candy preparations, and the effect upon them is a thousand times more beneficial. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a cure for all stomach disorders. It is the very best cure for children and adults. It does not create a habit. It does cure.

In all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, chronic or acute constipation, biliousness, and all other disorders arising from stomach trouble of any kind it is a quick and positive cure. All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

LIBBON TRAGEDY IS DESCRIBED

Terrific Earthquake of 1755 Recalled—Graphic Pen Picture in Novel Written by Grace Aguilar.

The executioners hurried forward, the brands were applied to the turf of the piles, the flames blazed up beneath their hand—when at that moment there came a shock as if the earth were cloven asunder, the heavens rent in twain. A crash, so loud, so fearful, so appalling, as if the whole of Lisbon had been shivered to its foundations, and a shriek, or rather thousands and thousands of human voices blended in one wild, piercing cry of agony and terror, seemed to burst from every quarter at the self same instant and fraught with universal woe. The buildings around shook, as impelled by a mighty whirlwind, though no such sound was heard.

The earth heaved, yawning, closed, and rocked again as the billows of the ocean were lashed to fury. It was a moment of untold horror. The crowd assembled to witness the martyr's death, wildly shrieking on every side, scattered to the heaving ground, the blazing piles lay powerless to injure; their hands were shivered; their guards were fled. One bound brought Alvaro to his wife and he clasped her in his arms.

Every street and square and avenue was choked with shattered ruins rent from top to bottom; houses, convents and churches presented the most fearful aspect of ruin; while every second minute a new impetus seemed to be given to the convulsed earth, causing those that remained still perfect to rock and rend. Huge stones, falling from every crack, were crushing the miserable fugitives as they rushed on, seeking safety they knew not where. None dared ask the fate of friends—none dared ask, "Who lives?" in that one scene of universal death.

On and on sped Alvaro and his precious burden! On over the piles of ruins, on unhurt, amidst the showers of stones, which hurled in the air as easily as a ball cast from an infant's hand, fell back again laden with a hundred deaths; on, amid the rocking and yawning earth, beholding thousands swallowed up, crushed and maimed, worse than death itself, for they were left to a lingering torture—to die a thousand deaths in anticipating one; on over the disfigured heaps of dead, and the unrecognized masses of what had once been magnificent and gorgeous buildings.

His eye was well high blinded with the shaking and tottering movement of all things animate and inanimate before him; and his path was obscured by the sudden and awful darkness, which had changed that bright, glowing hush of the sunny sky into a pall of dense and terrible blackness, becoming thicker and denser with every succeeding minute. Till darkness which might be felt enveloped that city as with the grim shadow of death.

His ear was deafened by the appalling sounds of human agony and nature's wrath; for now sounds as of a hundred waterspouts, the dull, continued roar of subterranean thunder, becoming at times loud as the discharge of a thousand cannons; at others resembling the sharp grating sound of hundreds and hundreds of chariots driven full speed over the stones; and this, mingled with the piercing shrieks of women, the hoarse cries and shouts of men, and the deep, terrible groans of mental agony and the shriller screams of instantaneous deaths, had usurped the place of the previous awful stillness, till every sense of those who yet survived seemed distorted and maddened.

A shock, violent, destructive, convulsive, flung them prostrate.

A new and terrible cry added to the universal horror.

"The son! The son!"

Alvaro sprang to his feet, and, clasped in each other's arms, he and Almah gazed beneath. Not a breath of wind moved, yet the river tossed and heaved as impelled by a mighty storm—and on it came, roaring, foaming, tumbling as every bound were loosed; on, on over the land to the very heart of the devoted city, sweeping off hundreds in its course, and retiring with such velocity and so far beyond its natural banks that vessels were left dry which had five minutes before ridden in water seven fathoms deep.

Again and again this phenomenon took place; the vessels in the river at the same instant whirled around, and around with frightful rapidity, and smaller boats dashed upwards, falling back to disappear beneath the booming waters.

As if chained to the spot by the horror, Alvaro and his wife yet gazed; their glances fixed on the new marble quay, where thousands and thousands of the fugitives had congregated; fixed as if unconsciously foreboding what was to befall.

Again the tide rushed in—on, on, over the massive ruins, heaving, raging, swelling as a living thing, and at the same instant the quay and its vast burden of humanity sunk with in an abyss of boiling waters, into which the innumerable boats around were alike impelled, leaving not a trace, even when the angry waters returned to their channel, suddenly as they had left it, to mark what had been.

Terrific it was. From three several parts of the ruined city huge fires suddenly blazed up, hissing, crackling, ascending as clear columns of liquid flame up against the pitchy darkness, infusing it with tenfold horror—spreading on every side—consuming all wood and wall which the earth and water had left unscathed; weaving its serpent like folds in and out the ruins; fascinating the eye with admiration, yet bidding the blood chill and the flesh creep.

Fresh shouts and cries had marked its rise and progress, but, against and stifled, those who yet survived made no effort to check its way, and on every side it spread, forming lanes and squares of glowing red, flinging its lurid glare so vividly around that even those on the distant heights could see to read by it; and fearful was the scene that awful light revealed.

Now for the first time, could Alvaro trace the full extent of destruction which had befallen. That glorious city which, a few brief hours previous lay reposing in gorgeous sunlight—mighty in its palaces and towers—in its churches, convents, theatres, magazines and dwellings—rich in its numberless artisans and stores—lay perished and prostrate as the grim specter of long ages past, save that the fearful groups yet passing to and fro, or huddled in kneeling or standing masses, some bathed in the red glare of the increasing fires, others black and shapeless—save when sudden fire flashed on them, disclosing what they were—revealed a strange and horrible present amid what seemed the shadows of a fearful past.

'BE SOBER'

Says President Roosevelt
"It is of incalculable consequence to the man himself that he should be sober and temperate, and that of even more consequence to his family and his children; for it is a hard and cruel fact that in this life of ours the sin of the man who is often visited most heavily upon those whom he loves should be his own special care."—President Roosevelt to the Master at Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

An exchange reports that they have found an editor in heaven. How he got there is not positively known, but it is conjectured that he piously passed himself for a Christian and stepped in unsuspected. When the dodge was discovered they searched the beautiful realm of felicity in all its length and breadth for a lawyer to draw up the papers for ejection, but they could not find one and of course he held the fort. Lucky editor.

EARTHQUAKES.

Earthquakes are natural vibrations of the ground. Their cause is somewhat in doubt, but progress is being made in scientific investigation of such cause. Many earthquakes are associated with volcanic eruptions, and advocates of this theory may believe the awful earthquake at San Francisco can be associated with the terrific eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, but they are so vastly far apart the theory may be combatted on that ground. The prevalent structure of mountain ranges in western North America involves extensive faulting, and former earthquakes in the west have been associated with this mountain structure. Phenomena have been studied closely with instruments of great delicacy, and the mountain development cause of earthquakes has been deducted from such investigation.

The most notable earthquakes in the United States occurred near the head of the Mississippi delta in 1811-12; the Inyo valley, California in 1872, and at Charleston, S. C., in 1886. The Mississippi valley earthquake was characterized by great prolongation of the phenomena. Severe shocks occurred at short intervals for a period of several months. Fissures were opened and closed, and there was an upheaval of mud. Some lakes were drained and others created by the subsidence of the land. The largest sunken area is said to have been sixty to eighty miles in length. There were both horizontal and perpendicular displacements. At Charleston, in 1886 the movements were oblique, and although less violent than those outside the city, were equally destructive. A large number of houses were demolished, twenty-seven persons were killed outright, others died afterwards from injuries received, and the property loss was computed in millions of dollars.

IN A TOMATO HOUSE.

A white shawl was wrapped around her head, making her face look very childlike. An utter listlessness was in every line of her unbecomingly figure as she sat on the log stool in the tomato house.

He came in so quietly that she did not notice his entrance. He was used to coming and going when he liked and understood the peculiarities of the stiff old lock.

He had seen her hundreds of times, ever since she was twelve years old. Now she was one and twenty.

He had followed every stage in her development, watched every unfolding of her mental powers.

He had flattered himself he knew her. Now it was proved to him that he did not.

In the frail, drooping heap before him he could not recognize his friend and critic, calm, intellectual and strong, with a strength that made him shiver when he felt it and wrung from him the cry of instinctive masculine distaste.

"Strong? Yes; too strong for a woman."

The sweet, unselfish sympathy and ready, eager interest he knew so well and had grown to look for as a matter of course, where were they?

The deep, unfathomable smile of those dark, luminous eyes—that was not a revelation of feeling, but a screen. Gone!

The quick alertness that spoke of fiercely burning vitality departed.

Her profile, he had told himself over and over again, was too heavy. What? It was almost transparent in the delicacy of its outline.

Her mouth was too firm. Firm? It trembled with a weary, hopeless, downward curve.

Her hair was dark and lusterless and straight. Unlovely quiet.

It clung to a head that was wonderfully molded and poised, throwing out the utter whiteness of a skin so fine that the purple blood veins showed plainly underneath.

She put her hand up wearily to smooth back a stray strand of hair. The movement, slight as it was, brought a pink flush to her cheek. Her hand fell. She was conscious of no change.

But he was. For nine years he had known, admired, esteemed, revered, consulted, scolded, chaffed and tortured her.

What her splendid honesty, her wonderful clear sightedness, her intellectual face, her absolute unaffectedness, her pure soul, her deep sympathy could never do that glance of womanly weakness did.

He loved her.

Till then he had held his breath, but as the knowledge came upon him he gave a deep, long drawn gasp, that was half wonder, half joy.

She stirred slightly, raised her heavy, fringed lids, and their eyes met.

His was full of light, but they drew no answering flash from hers.

Perhaps he never noticed that. If he did it caused him no uneasiness.

He sat down beside her on the old log, and because he was impetuous by nature and never waited for a favorable season, but acted as the impulse urged him, and because he was too truthful to soften the edges of a fact or clothe it in more words than decency, he looked at her and said in tones that were monotonous from restrained emotion:

"Annie, I love you."

For a moment she made no sign of movement, gave no hint that she had heard or understood.

Then she calmly looked at him and said:

"I am very sorry."

Out burst the full flood of horror-stricken protest, fervent vows and humble prayers.

She heard it all, unchanged, unshaken.

He begged, he coaxed, he commanded. He failed to arouse her.

Then love made him wise, and he said calmly and confidently:

"You loved me once. I know you did."

The blood rushed to her cheeks and brow in crimson tide. Then, not to be outdone in truthfulness, she answered:

"Yes, I did once. I do now."

His cry of joy was checked by the sight of her sunlit eyes and the sound of her unmoved voice.

He felt a chill seize his heart. He faltered, "Then why do you act so strangely?"

She stooped down and slowly loosened a tomato plant from the box of seedlings by her side, drawing it out root and all, and she held it in the hollow of her hand.

He watched her in silent wonder.

"If that had grown all its life in the dark, what would it have been like?" she asked.

"White and weak and puny and nearly lifeless," he answered, still wondering.

"Yes," she said, with her strange, bewildering smile. "I am like that. My love grew in the dark eight years. It is white and feeble now."

"The plant would grow green if put in the light. It isn't too late even now," he pleaded. "The power is there, and the sunshine is ready and warm."

"Yes, it is there," she answered, "but from darkness to fierce sunlight what happens? A short struggle, a quick death."

"My darling! This is nonsense!" he cried, taking her in his arms. "I have been a mad fool, the past is gone, and nothing can give us back its wasted hours, but the present and future are still ours to live. Nature can make such foolish laws. I will break them."

And he bent and kissed her lips.

A light shone in her eyes, her breath came quick, her color flamed, her love sprang into perfect life. She kissed him. Lady.

FINAL SESSION

Arrangements for Last Day of Christian Bible School in Old Building—Will Visit New Church.

Sunday will be the last day for the Bible school of the Christian church in the old building, and appropriate services will be observed at the regular session in the morning. In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the members of the school will meet with their teachers in the new building to assign classes to their permanent places. This plan has been decided upon to avoid confusion on dedication day.

Only persons present at Bible school Sunday morning will be admitted to the church Sunday afternoon. At the morning session tickets will be given to all present, and persons without tickets will not be admitted with the others. This rule has been made because it was deemed advisable to have present only such as were members of the school upon this occasion, in order that the work may proceed as rapidly and with as little confusion as possible. All who expect to be present at the Bible school dedication day should be present to-morrow in order to get acquainted with the new quarters.

A very large attendance is expected at the first meetings of the Bible school in its new home. Special arrangements are being made for the accommodation of visitors on that day, of which announcement will be made later. The average for Jacksonville in the Paris-Jacksonville contest is expected to be considerably bettered within the next few weeks.

FOR THE CHILDREN

The Game of Three Things.

Any number of boys and girls may play this game, the more the better, as a rule. The players choose a leader and then sent themselves in a row or in a circle. The leader then numbers them, beginning with himself as No. 1, the boy or girl next to him as No. 2, and so on.

He then gives to the player next to him the names of three things, aloud, which No. 2 must immediately use in some sentence, and the sentence must express a thought connectedly. Having spoken his sentence, No. 2 gives three names of things to No. 3, who in turn uses them in a sentence and then gives three other names of things to No. 4.

For instance, No. 1 says, "Door, boy, glass." Then No. 2 might say: "The boy banged the door after he broke the glass and ran away. I give egg, table, duty."

No. 3 then says: "The egg was left in the basket on the table, for Johnny had to perform another duty before he could have it cooked. I give slate, dog, honey."

No. 4 immediately takes up those words and says: "The slate was broken by being knocked over by the dog in his eagerness to get at the honey. I give light, island, watch."

Thus the game goes on as long as the players like.

WE ADVISE EARLY SELECTION.

Suggestions to Purchasers Of Refrigerators.

In buying a refrigerator, keep the following points in view, every one of which is a prominent feature of every one sold by us.

The preservation of perishable food is the first and most vital point. To obtain this end requires a low temperature and absolutely dry air. These conditions can only be attained by a perfect circulation of air in the refrigerator.

The second vital point in a refrigerator is an economical use of ice. The economical use of ice is of the greatest importance. A good refrigerator will last a lifetime, and how many times its first cost must be expended in ice during that time, and what a saving can be made by having a refrigerator which is an ice saver and not an ice waster. To attain this end the refrigerator must be well made of kiln dried lumber. It must have in addition a lining of non-conducting mineral wool sheathing, which is airtight and odorless. It must be provided with a drip pipe and trap, so as to exclude the outside air from the ice and allow the drip from the melting ice free exit.

We have received our new line of refrigerators and have them ranging in price from $8 up to $40.

HEARING FROM RELATIVES IN

California—Anxious Friends Receive Tidings Regarding Friends in Stricken City—First Telegrams Reached Here Friday.

Norman Broadwell received a Western Union dispatch from his brother, Charles Broadwell, who is in San Francisco. He was unhurt but his place of business was destroyed. Another brother, Baxter Broadwell, who also resides in San Francisco, was called away on business and escaped the dreadful catastrophe. The Broadwell family have been anxiously awaiting news from their relatives and their minds were much relieved when the news was received. The telegram stated that the damage by fire was terrific.

H. N. Keuchler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Keuchler, of South Prairie street, resides in San Francisco at 885 Bush street. His office was in the Bialto building on the sixth floor. No word had been received from him up to Friday night.

N. T. Kirby, of Springfield, received word from his son, Harry N. Kirby, who was expecting to be in San Francisco, stating that he had been detained in Los Angeles longer than expected and had consequently escaped the danger to which others were exposed. The Springfield Journal had a cut of Mr. Kirby in Friday's issue and a copy of the dispatch telling of his safety.

Thomas Monahan, brother of Mrs. James Walls, Sr., of this city, is supposed to have been within the burned district at San Francisco. He was stopping at the Tremont hotel, which was destroyed, and on account of his old age, it is feared that he may have been among the unfortunate.

A dispatch from John R. Robertson at Pasadena, Cal., states that all was well there Thursday and that he and his friends would probably be home Monday.

George T. Wiswell is anxiously awaiting word from San Francisco, where he has a sister, Mrs. A. G. Baldwin and her two sons.

WILL SEEK AID FOR FRISCO

SUFFERERS ORGANIZATION OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.

Business Section in Each Ward Will be Canvassed—Subscription May be Left at Banks—Several Donations Already Made.

FOR 'FRISCO FUND' City of Jacksonville $100 R. of P. Lodge, No. 32 100 School for the Blind 50 Wyoming club 50

Organization of the citizens' relief committee for the California sufferers was perfected at a meeting held at the city hall Friday evening. Mayor John R. Davis was made chairman of the committee, M. F. Dunlap treasurer, and J. Bart Johnson secretary.

Ways and means of raising money for the residents of the stricken cities were discussed and it was decided to canvass the business section of each ward of the city and to arrange for taking of subscriptions and issuing receipts thereat at each one of the banks of the city.

With this end in view two committees were named, one on printing and one on conference with the church organizations of the city looking toward the taking of collections at the Sunday services.

M. F. Dunlap, Aldermen Cobb and Johnson were made members of the printing committee and Capt. J. H. Freeman, Aldermen Ticknor and McGinnis were made members of the church committee.

Mayor Davis was made a committee of one to confer with the heads of the various schools and colleges of the city and state institutions.

Members of the committee from each ward will begin a canvass of their respective wards this morning and it was the sense of the committee that all subscriptions should be handed to the local press and publication of the same be made from day to day.

Capt. J. H. Freeman, superintendent of the Blind reported that there was raised Friday among pupils and employees $60 for the relief fund. Other members of the committee reported offers of varying amounts from business men and others but no money had been collected pending the organization of the committee.

William Newman reported that $50 had been subscribed by the Wyoming club.

Ald. Capps was made a committee of one to receive subscriptions at the Capps mill, and Alderman Cobb was authorized to act in a similar capacity at the C. P. & St. L. car shops. Sheriff Rodgers was authorized to solicit funds among officers and clerks at the court house, and W. E. Killen, proprietor of the Dunlap hotel and E. A. Brennan, proprietor of the Pacific hotel, were authorized to receive funds from the persons at the hotels.

The members of the board of county commissioners will be asked to make an appropriation in keeping with the action of boards in other counties.

In fact every effort will be put forward by the members of the committee to make the financial assistance rendered at this time of distress and suffering sufficient in amount to be a credit to the city and in keeping with the spirit of benevolence and Christianity for which the city has ever been noted and for which cause so many of our citizens are pledged and obligated by ties most sacred.

An effort will be made to have the churches of the city assist in this cause at the services Sunday and it is hoped that the various organizations will authorize the taking of a collection for the relief of the suffering at the morning services.

K. OF P. DONATE $100.

At the meeting of Jacksonville Lodge No. 152 held Friday night $100 was appropriated out of the lodge funds for relief of the stricken knights in California.

Members of the citizens' relief committee are: Mayor John R. Davis, chairman; First ward, Ald. McGinnis and Capt. J. H. Freeman; Second ward, Ald. Ticknor and John A. Ayers; Third ward, Ald. Cobb and William Newman; Fourth ward, Ald. Johnson and M. F. Dunlap.

Carpet cleaning. Moore Rug Co.

Success has crowned our efforts of untiring endeavor and we present to the public with a confidence never before held by any other medicine, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Armstrong Drug Co.

Special Sale OF Lace Curtains

$3.50. $4.25. $5.00

50c a pair and upward

Beginning tomorrow, Wednesday, we are going to upset some old-time curtain traditions. We're going to put on sale one hundred pairs of choice Lace Curtains, and the price per pair is $5.00 or less.

Perhaps you have thought you must pay a big price for good curtains; maybe you have figured $7.50 or $10.00 as a fair price for curtains. Then come here to-morrow early, and we will show you where you are wrong.

A special purchase from the Lehigh manufacturing Company—and nobody makes better curtains—Irish Point, Nottingham, Bobbinet, Chumz—beautiful weaves, graceful designs, firm texture, the kind worth double the price, and they look it.

We say to all shrewd shoppers, if you want to secure big money's worth, don't miss this special curtain sale. Bring your best judgment, we invite critical inspection. They are here—good Lace Curtains—don't expect any other kind—and the price is $5.00 (or less). The early comers will be the lucky ones.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE.

The Presbyterian church in the United States reaches its 200th anniversary as a denomination next week. Arrangements have been made to celebrate the event in the First Church of Philadelphia April 23, where and when the first Presbyterian church was organized. State Street church of this city will celebrate the important anniversary Sunday, April 22. In the morning "The Presbyterian Church in America" will be presented and in the evening, "The Presbyterians in Jacksonville."

The Postal telegraph company has announced to its various offices that arrangements have been made for the opening of an office on Market street in San Francisco where telegrams for that city will be sent. It will be impossible for the telegrams to be delivered but the company will placard the city asking those expecting dispatches to call at the office.

LAW INVALID.

Madison, Wis., April 20.—Judge Sanborn of the United States district court this afternoon handed down an opinion declaring the Wisconsin grain inspection law invalid.

First Lessons.

Priscilla went to school this week. She's only five, you know. And for a very little girl she has not much to show. The teacher gave her picture books. With cats and mice and birds. She thought she knew them off by heart. But, oh, those horrid words! She saw a big red cube. Along with yellow blocks. She spelled out cube, but said it was "A little baby box." A frisky lamb was a speckled calf. The hammer was a hatchet. Whenever she was in much doubt, She took a word to match it. The spade she knew was a little hoe; The brook looked like a sea. And every colored picture there Was as queer as queer could be. Next day she would not go at all. And I heard Priscilla say, "School may be nice for grownup folks, But I'd much rather play." —Youth's Companion.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Jacksonville vs. Keokuk Today and Sunday—Berte Out Again and O'Brien Here—Diamond News.

This afternoon the local baseball aggregation will meet the Keokuk team of the Iowa State league at West Side park. The game will be called at 3:30 and the Sunday game will be called at 3 o'clock. The grand stand will be ready for use at these games. In the first game McKenn and Large will pitch, and Belt will be behind the bat. The batteries for the Sunday game have not been announced.

Berte is out again after an illness of several days with tonsillitis or a similar complaint, and although still weak may be able to get in the game to-morrow. O'Brien has arrived from Indianapolis, and was out for practice for the first time Friday. He looks every inch a ball player and his work will be watched closely in the two Keokuk games. His position will probably be at third.

The team had a hard workout Friday and a good practice game was played. For about five innings the score stood 0 to 0.

For exhibition games no grand stand charge will be made. Tuesdays and Fridays of the regular schedule will be ladies' days, when admission will be free to women, but the regular 15c charge for grand stand seats will be made. On other days, when full admission is paid, grandstand will always be free to women.

Belt's team will probably meet Illinois college in a practice game sometime next week.

The huckster privilege at the ball park has been let to George Sharpe.

SUFFERED FALL.

Alfred Morrison suffered a fall recently that resulted in breaking his left arm. He was taken to Passavant hospital Thursday where he is under the care of Dr. H. C. Wolfman.

DEATH RECORD.

HOPPER.

Died at his home in Mattoon, Ill., Thursday morning, Rev. W. S. Hooper, a retired minister of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Some of the charges which he had filled most successfully are as follows: President of Rockport College; president of Indiana; president of Marshall college, Charleston, Ill.; Hillsboro, Quincy, Danville, Delevan, Winchester, Paris, Farmer City, Paxton, Shelbyville, Mattoon, Charleston and Carrollton. He wrote the history of Peter Cartwright's "Fifty Years Presiding Eldership."

Funeral services will be conducted in Mattoon to day at 10 a. m.

ANDERSON.

William H. Anderson, of Bluffs, a conductor on the C. P. & St. L. railroad, died suddenly in Springfield Friday morning. He will be buried at Bluffs by the Order of Railway Conductors. He is survived by his wife and four children of Bluffs.

PLEASANT COMPANY.

The girl seniors of Illinois college, Miss Ainslee Moore, Miss Andoinette Pires, Miss Eva Noelsch and Miss Eva Cochran, were at home to the girl sophomores at the home of Miss Moore Friday afternoon. A very pleasant time informally was enjoyed by the young ladies, and dainty refreshments were served.

STUBBORN COUGHS.

A cough which lingers on long after every other symptom of a cold has disappeared should have attention as it indicates some throat or lung trouble and may result seriously. Mr. Alexander McMillan, of Maple Ridge, Mich., recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for this trouble. He says: "I used this remedy for a stubborn cough with the best results and I think there is nothing like it. I cannot speak too highly of it." For sale by all leading druggists.

WHIPPLE WINS

OVER STUDENTS

Of Knox Academy—Honors in Debate and Declamation Awarded, Local School—Contest Took Place at Galesburg.

Representatives of Whipple academy won hands down in their joint debate with Knox academy at Galesburg Friday night. They were given the unanimous decision of the judges. The two young ladies who represented Whipple academy in the contest in declamation also won the honors of the evening, although a Knox representative was given first place, and the Whipple girls second and third. The contests were held in the Beecher hall chapel of Knox college before a large and enthusiastic audience.

The subject for debate was: "Resolved, That a constitutional amendment should be adopted providing for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people."

Whipple's representatives, B. B. Watson and F. M. McDonald, upheld the negative, and received the unanimous decision of the judges. Knox was represented by Tom Flynn and Guy Zerby. The judges were Rev. Benjamin Y. George, of Elmhurst, Pres. T. H. McMichael of Monmouth, and Supt. W. F. Jones, of Knoxville.

The contestants in declamation and their subjects were as follows: Catherine Wilkins (Knox)—Jean Valjean; Victor Hugo.

Ethel Roberts (W. A.)—A Narrow Escape, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps; Grace Howell (W. A.)—Little Hallelujah's Convert.

Frances Wilson (Knox)—The First Christmas Tree. The markings of the judges were as follows: Wilkins, 5; Roberts, 6; Howell, 7; Wilson, 12. This gave Whipple an advantage of four points, and although their representative failed to get the first place, they clearly won the contest as a whole by several points.

Following the contest a reception was tendered the visitors, at which the members of the faculty of the academy and many of the college professors were present. Principal and Mrs. R. O. Stoops of Whipple academy accompanied the contestants to Galesburg.

PHI ALPHA SOCIETY.

At the regular meeting of Phi Alpha society Friday evening, the following program was given:

Essayist—Empton, County Local Option; Vittum, Sergius Witte and His Decline.
